

Career Ladder Classes

This is a series of classes offered during the school year for existing staff for professional development. The classes are voluntary. Staff wanting to participate in the class must possess a High School Diploma or GED equivalent, an overall meets on their year-end evaluation and have one year of FNS food service experience. If staff complete the course then they are eligible for promotion to a FSA II. Staff must attend all five classes. All classes are held in the FNS training portable from 2:30 to 4:30pm.
